1. INTRODUCTION

Based on the 2022 Wealth Report by Knight Frank, the number of people with ultra-high net worth individuals (UNWHI) in Indonesia reached 1,403 people in 2021. This number increased by 1% from 1,390 in 2020. UHNWI are people who have wealth of at least US$ 30 million. In 2021, there were a total of 610,569 ultra-rich individuals based on Knight Frank data. The number of super-rich people in Indonesia has increased 68% since 2016. In 2016, the number of UHNWIs was recorded at only 832 people. Knight Frank projects that the number of UHNWIs in Indonesia could increase by 29% in 2026. This means there will be 1,810 super-rich people that year. Not all countries will experience an increase in the number of super-rich people. For example, the number of super-rich people decreased by 0.4% in Malaysia and 1% in Vietnam.

For the Indonesian State Administrator with the Largest Assets (2021). Minister of Tourism and Creative Economy Sandiaga Uno Regarding the wealth of Echelon I officials of the Ministry of Finance, according to the State Administrators' Wealth Report (LHKPN) for the 2021 period, Suryo Utomo is an employee of the Ministry of Finance, where currently they have 11 officials at that level. Among these names, there are only 5 officials whose complete LHKPN status has been announced, namely Sandiaga Uno, Prabowo

Subianto, Nadiem Anwar Makarim, Luhut Binsar Pandjaitan, and Airlangga Hartarto. The LHKPN status of 5 other officials is still in the verification process, namely Tahir, Muhamad Mardiono, Benny Laos, Wiranto, and Muhidin.

The highest level of LHKPN compliance this year was achieved by the Ministry of Health (Kemenkes), namely 89.45%. This means that of all Ministry of Health officials who are required to report LHKPN, a total of 1,631 people, 89.45% have provided a complete report. The lowest LHKPN compliance was achieved by the Coordinating Ministry for Political, Legal and Security Affairs (Kemenko Polhukam), namely only 40.22%.
